C. Bushrod Poole House
Buckeystown
Private

Circa 1858

The C. Bushrod Poole House is one of the most distinctive of the mid nineteenth century houses located in Buckeystown. It is the only stucco over stone residence in the town and was originally built circa 1858, when Bushrod Poole purchased part of "Rocky Fountain" from Colonel Davis Richardson for $150.00.

In 1887, Dr. Poole sold the house and property to William Moore for $2,000.00. When Fleet R. Neighbors purchased the house from Moore in 1883, he opened a private academy for elementary school age children.

The structure retains a front and back entrance porch with decorative wood sawnwork. Palladian windows are located at each gable end.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Cyrus Poole House is a two story gable roofed stucco over stone residence which faces east from the west side of Route 85 in Buckeystown.

The principal facade is three bays wide. The main entrance, a four panel door with three side lights and seven light transom is located in the second bay. The main entrance is decorated by pedimented shouldered architrave trim.

It is covered by the most prominent feature of the building, a two story decorative frame porch one bay wide with four large boxed columns, sawnwork railing and balcony and pedimented roof with pierced bargeboard and finial.

Occupying the remaining two bays on the first level are twin 4/4 windows flanked by louvered shutters with pedimented hoods.

Small triple Palladian windows occupy the first and third bay on the second level.

Located in the second bay on the balcony level is a four panel door with three side lights and triangular six light transom.

The main block is two bays wide. Six over six windows with pedimented hood and louvered shutters occupy each bay.

Centered in each gable between the chimney flues is a large Palladian window flanked by louvered shutters.

The rear of the building is identical to the front including the porch, doors and fenestration pattern.

The house is covered by a replaced asphalt roof with boxed cornice and scrolled brackets in each corner of the building.

Four interior brick chimneys rise from each side of the north and south gable ends.

The building is constructed on a low random stone foundation which has been stuccoed. Small four pane windows light the basement level on each side of the house.
